Ladies Auxiliary Meeting - April 2, 2016

After the opening ritual, President Sue Lenés gave special thanks to Bill Watts who was responsible for the party buses for the trip to the Bush Library. Sue Lenés recognized Mickey Jo Lawrence, First Lady of the National Society SAR and Barbara Stevens, First Lady of Texas SAR and presented them with a gift from the Ladies Auxiliary. Also recognized was Nancy Alter, wife of Warren Alter, NSSAR.

Thirty- four ladies were present. We have 70 members including 37 Lifetime Members. Reports were given by the officers and are on the Texas SAR website (TexasSAR.org) under the heading "About Texas SAR".

President Sue Lenés asked Mickey Jo Lawrence to tell us about her project as First Lady of SAR: "Help a Vet". She talked about several projects ladies have done such as lap quilts, housewarming shower for Sheppard's Hands, whose mission is to provide a safe environment and housing for homeless women veterans who have risked their lives in defending the freedoms that we enjoy.

Jane Cohen talked about the DAR-SAR Relations Committee goals, and introduced members of the committee who were present.

Tour - the George W. Bush Presidential Library and Museum is framed by themes of freedom, opportunity, compassion, and responsibility. A native Texas landscape in a 15-acre urban park reflects the President and Mrs. Bush's longstanding commitment to environmental conservation and restoration. Mrs. Bush fostered initiatives that encouraged parents to read to young children, helped empower teachers, and worked to ensure all students had an equal chance for classroom success.
