REMINDER: ELECTION OF OFFICERS FOR 1997 TO BE HELD AT MARCH 6TH SAR MEETING

REGIONAL SAR ORATORY CONTEST WINNERS ANNOUNCED

At the recent SAR regional oratory contest held in Plano, Parin Parikh of Plano won first place for his patriotic presentation. This award allows him to compete in the state finals to be held in March in Plano. Other participants in the contest were John Manaloor of Richardson and Caleb Johnson of Lindale. The speeches expressed the history, values, and ideas of the revolution as relevant today. Two of the three judges were compatriots Jim Johnson and Delbert Taylor.

ANCESTOR HUNT SUCCESSFUL

Last month's "Ancestor Hunt" computer workshop was very much appreciated by the participants which included many non-SAR members. Although estimates of the number in attendance vary (probably around twenty), every working station was busy for the entire evening. The success of this event was due in large part to the efforts of compatriot Tom Cain, Ann's Words and Data, and the Broderbund Corporation.

March 16th is the 146th anniversary of the birth of President James Madison.

"Voices of the evolution"

"To the press alone, chequered as it is with abuses, the world is indebted for all the triumphs which have been gained by reason and humanity over error and oppression....That to the same beneficent source the United States owe much of the lights which conducted them to the ranks of a free and independent nation, and which have improved their political system into a shape so auspicious to their happiness."

James Madison
