Minutes of the Meeting April 6th, 2000

President Bill Bell called the meeting to order at 7:00 pm. Chaplain Tom Bailey gave the invocation. The Pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States and the Pledge to the SAR were given. Members present were Bill Bell, James Johnson, William Vaughn, Gerald Brenholtz, William Brenholtz, Tom Bailey, James Baird, John Monroe and Samuel Haynes. President Bell introduced the visitors. He then introduced the winner of the State Poster Contest, Reagan Wood and his parents. Reagan was given a certificate and promised that the $300. bond would be presented as soon as received from the State Office. President Bell then introduced new TXXSAR President Richard Arnold, who administered the oaths to the new officers of Denton Chapter #23. Compatriot Arnold then turned over the gavel to Jim Johnson. Johnson's first act as President was to present Bill Bell with the Past President's Badge and Certificate. He then gave the floor to Richard Arnold who discussed the importance of the use of uniforms in promoting the SAR. Treasurer, William Vaughn gave the Treasurer's report, $529.87 regular fund and $103.01 special fund. Samuel Haynes was asked to lead the SAR closing and Tom Bailey gave the closing prayer.

Respectfully submitted, Samuel Haynes
