SAN ANTONIO CHAPTER #4 • TEXAS SOCIETY OF THE SONS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION

FEBRUARY 2007

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Compatriots:

Thank you for your vote of confidence allowing me to serve as your chapter President for 2007. I am honored to serve and will work to serve the best interests of the Chapter.

We have a lot work ahead of us and the biggest challenge this year is that of being the Host Chapter for the annual meeting of the Texas Society Sons of the American Revolution (TXSSAR) from March 22nd to 25th at the DoubleTree Hotel. I extend my heartiest thanks to those members, and their wives, who have responded to the call to serve on our committees. We need more volunteers to serve on our committees. If you have not yet signed up, please call Compatriot George Harcourt at (210) 822-1960. All are welcome to join our State Convention Planning Committee that meets weekly on Wednesdays at 12:00 PM at George Harcourt's office at 40 NE Loop 410 Suite 607 - that's the Mercantile Building that has the Wells Fargo & Bank of Laredo as tenants. It is directly south across Loop 410 from DoubleTree Hotel. Most importantly, we need donations for the Silent

GEO. WASHINGTON ADDRESSES THE CHAPTER

MARK COLLINS TO ENTERTAIN AND EDUCATE AT THE FEBRUARY MEETING

STATE CONVENTION ONLY 6 WEEKS AWAY

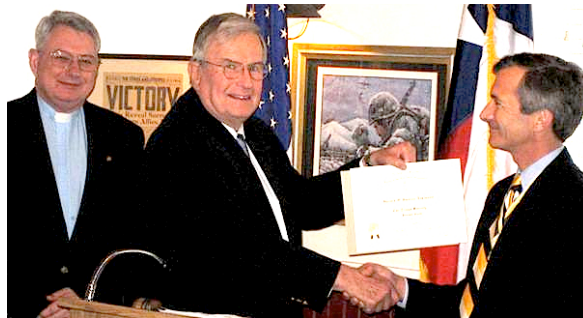

The speaker at the February meeting will be Mark Collins who portrays General George Washington. Mr. Collins has addressed our chapter before and returns due to popular demand. Recently he had the role of General Washington in the 13-part documentary titled "The Revolution" on the History Channel.

The chapter calendar of events is on page four. It covers February through April of 2007. Please note the March chapter luncheon will be held in conjunction with the State Convention. It will be on Saturday March 24th at the Doubletree hotel - a departure in time and place from our normal meetings. This is an event you don't want to miss. The registration form for the event is in this newsletter.

Chapter members (and some Compatriots from the Boerne chapter) are volunteering for positions to help with the 2007 convention. Please lend a hand - you will have fun and your assistance will be appreciated.

JANUARY'S GENERAL CHAPTER MEETING

At our January meeting the newly elected officers were sworn into office. Tweed Scott was warmly received as he delivered his presentation in such a way the chapter was asking for more. If you missed him you might want to buy his book online, he sold out at the meeting.

At left is Chaplain James Taylor, Harold Atkinson and past President Dogan Perese presenting the certificate to the newly inducted Compatriot.

WASHINGTON AT MT VERNON

After the revolutionary war ended and General Washington resigned his commission he looked forward to the relaxed atmosphere of Mt Vernon. He would work, rest and enjoy the life of the country squire with Martha. He had served with no salary however he was reimbursed for his expenses.

On his arrival at Mt Vernon admiring visitors started showing up at his door. With the stream of guests so unrelenting that a year and a half passed [550 days] before he and Martha could dine alone. Visitors were always invited to dine with them and spend the night. There were politicians, painters, foreigners, soldiers that he had served with, all of the famous names of the time etc. He wrote the names in his squire's diary. It was a steady stream and at times he had to buy cattle and other food items because Mt Vernon could not produce enough to feed them.

The costs were outrunning his income & financial situation became precarious. He was land wealthy but cash poor. He rejected a plan by officials of Pennsylvania to petition the Continental Congress for money on his behalf. He made a greater sacrifice by turning down grants of land that congress was awarding other Revolutionary War veterans.

When asked to serve as Americas first president he again refused to accept pay but would accept an expense account to cover his living expenses and entertaining that had become a burden.

As he was preparing for his trip to New York he applied for a loan of on thousand pounds to pay off his debts and was refused. He appealed to an acquaintance for 5 hundred pounds and stopped in Philadelphia to see financier Robert Morris for the remainder. Morris had established the first US Bank with capital of four hundred thousand dollars; fifty thousand of his own money.

When he reached New York for his inauguration he must have been relieved that this burden was lifted. However he could not have imagined the rough road ahead as the first President of the United States.

FEBRUARY'S SPEAKER

Mark Collins, who has long white hair and a remarkable facial appearance and profile resembling that of George Washington's, has given numerous presentations all over Central and South Texas, portraying the first president.

In his programs, Collins likes to reflect on what he describes as the spiritual attributes of the first president that have made this nation what it is today.

The seminar will be in the Doubletree Hotel, the convention hotel, and the special convention room rates will apply. Cost of the seminar is only $35.00. A syllabus will be provided for all registrants. For further information contact Judge Ed Butler, NSSAR Chancellor General, acting chairman for this event, at judge58@aol.com or at 210-698-8964.

SPOTLIGHT ON SAN ANTONIO CHAPTER COMPATRIOT

This month's Spotlight Compatriot is a native of Mississippi who attended prep school at the Marion Institute. At 17 he joined the Army parachute troops - the 11th Airborne and with them saw action in the Pacific, Philippines and the Japanese occupation. Upon returning home he went to Old Miss where he married his wife, now of 59 years. They had a daughter who provided three grandchildren - and now 2 great-grandsons. The family went to west Texas as our Compatriot was employed by Humble Oil and Refining Company. Following that they moved to Corpus Christi where our man worked as a consultant in the oil business. Then it was to Washington, D.C. where he was the Assistant Executive Director of the American Geology Institute.

In the years 1971 - 1986 he was at the University of Texas in Austin, retiring as the assistant vice-president of research. From that post he became President of Live Oak Energy - which he later sold; yet to this day remains active every business day as a petroleum consultant. His motto is, "the older I get the more I charge". He was appointed by Billy Clayton to the Texas Committee on Marine and Coastal Commission dealing with international protocols of oil and gas and international boundaries. His father was SAR and his mother was SAR. He has served as the president of the Patrick Henry chapter, editor of the TXSSAR publication, TXSSAR vice president and TXSSAR president. Beyond those offices he has been the President of Colonial Wars, Governor of the San Antonio Colony of the Mayflower, founding president of the San Antonio chapter of the Sons of the Confederacy, Governor of the San Antonio Company of the Jamestown Society. He and his wife are members of St. Marks Episcopal Church. They look forward to seeing you at the TXSSAR convention in March (the last time the state convention was held in San Antonio our spotlight compatriot was the chairman!)

This month's report will continue the introduction of the various pages in our website.

Next on the list is the Chapter By-Laws Page which is a very brief page unto itself, but which contains a link to a seven page copy of the Fourth Amended By-Laws which may be viewed and printed using Adobe Reader. There is also a link which may be used to go to the Adobe Website to obtain a copy of Adobe Reader, if you do not already have a copy.

The Membership Page provides information about, what else (?), Membership. The SAR Membership Application form is available for use. There is some supplemental membership information, and there is a link to the NSSAR Genealogy website where additional genealogical assistance can be obtained.

The Annual Report to State Page is an important page which provides instruction and guidance to Chapter officers and committee chairmen for preparation of the Annual Report the local Chapter must submit to the State Chapter.

The Newsletters Page has links to all of the current year, and some of the prior year Newsletters. If you need to read or print a copy of the current month, or an earlier issue, it is available here.

Now for BIG news! The Photo Gallery Page has finally come to life, thanks to the assistance of a prospective Compatriot, Max Strozier. Photos from Chapter Meetings and other Events are available using specific links to the Meeting or Event of interest.

The Memorials Page is working and available for posting Memorial Resolutions prepared by Member Compatriots in honor and memory of their fellow Compatriots. At the moment, there are no postings.

The Links to Related Sites Page does what it suggests, and provides links to various Social Society, Governmental, Library, General Genealogy, and Commercial websites that contain interesting and helpful information related to our function.

And last, but certainly not least, the all important 2007 State Meeting Pages have been enhanced with a copy of George Harcourt's first copy draft of the Agenda for the meeting.

I'll see you next month.
